Cultural icon - Wikipedia

After the sinking of the Titanic, rumors swirled about the ship, the passengers, and the events that led to the tragedy. Among these rumors were tales that Captain Smith faced pressure from the White Star Line to keep up the ship's speed, or that he ignored warnings from other ships about the presence of icebergs.

The Titanic has gone down in history as the ship that was called unsinkable. However, even though countless news stories after the sinking called Titanic unsinkable, prior to the sinking the White Star Line had used the term "designed to be unsinkable", and other pre-sinking publications described the ship as "virtually unsinkable". Another well-known story is that of the ship's band, led by ...
